Sir:

A personal interview was conducted on September 22, 2005 for the above-identified application. Applicant thanks Examiners Knowlin and Matar for the courtesies extended to Applicant's representative during the personal interview.

During the interview, the undersigned discussed the patentable differences between the claimed invention and U.S. Patent No. 5,848,152 to Slipy et al (hereinafter "Slipy"). Applicant's representative described the claimed invention and explained that Slipy did not teach, inter alia, a cover "slidingly fitted along" a groove on the body of the mobile telephone. The Examiner stated that Slipy appears to teach that the cover clips on the body of the telephone. The Examiner stated that further search will be performed and a new Office Action will be forthcoming.
